

AILEY II

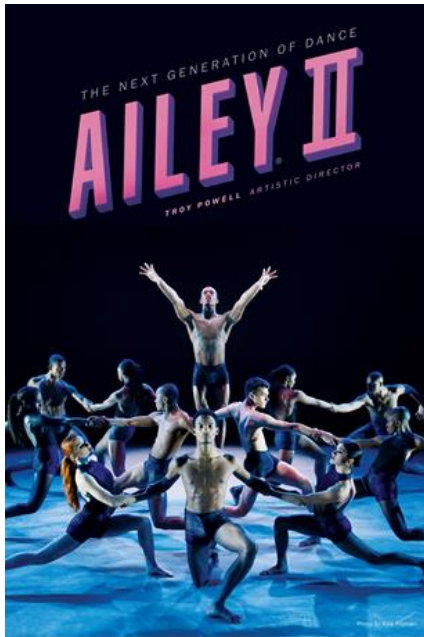

Daytime Performance for Students
Tues. Feb. 12, 2019 10:30 a.m.

Heymann Performing Arts Center, Lafayette

There's nothing like the thrill of discovering a new favorite artist or being the first to see new work by acclaimed choreographers. Ailey II offers both: a company of 12 on their-way-to-the-top dancers and a repertory of works by emerging choreographers. Handpicked by artistic director Troy Powell, the Ailey II dancers travel year-round to share their "off-the-charts energy" (The New Yorker) with audiences around the world. Show your students why The New York Times says, "There's nothing like an evening spent with Ailey II" as they perform new works and returning classics.

The program, designed especially for a student audience, builds cultural literacy and demonstrates:

- The type of preparation and discipline that a professional dance company demands
- What types of physical training dancers must practice
- Creative thinking, respect for others, teamwork and collaboration.
- The career opportunities available in arts, culture and creative industries.
